2. Beneficiary relationship designation (from original owner)

The SECURE Act of 2020 created new categories under the Internal Revenue Code definition of who are IRA account owner beneficiaries upon the death of an IRA account owner. Each category has specific distribution rules that a beneficiary must follow when distributing assets from an inherited IRA. As a result, we need to confirm your beneficiary type in relation to the original IRA owner from whom you inherited the IRA.

Complete this section if the beneficiary is inheriting the IRA from the original IRA owner. If the deceased IRA owner is not the original owner, proceed to Section 3.

Please provide the beneficiary's relationship to the original IRA owner of the account. Select only ONE beneficiary type. If you need further guidance, contact your tax advisor.

- Spouse - 1st Gen EDB-Sole Spouse (EDB refers to "eligible designated beneficiary" under Section 409 of the Internal Revenue Code)
Select this option if you are a spouse and you are not electing to treat as your own IRA. If you are treating the IRA as your own, complete the IRA Application.
- Non-Person or Entity Beneficiary - 1st Gen NDB (NDB refers to non-designated beneficiary which is the alternative to EDB)
Select this option if the IRA is being transferred to an entity beneficiary (estate, trust, charity). Proceed to Section 6 and review Non-Person or Entity Beneficiary for distribution options.
- Minor child of the deceased - 1st Gen EDB-Minor
Select this option if the inherited IRA is for a minor (under the age of 18) who is a direct descendent (son or daughter) of the deceased IRA account owner. Proceed to Section 6 and review Life Expectancy Eligible for distribution options.
- Other Life Expectancy Eligible - 1st Gen EDB-Other
Select this option if you are eligible for Life Expectancy payments which includes beneficiaries who are chronically ill, disabled, or less than 10 years younger than original IRA account owner. Proceed to Section 6 and review Life Expectancy Eligible for distribution options.
- Designated Beneficiary
Select this option if the beneficiary relationship does not fit any other category listed above, including not being eligible for payments over a person's life expectancy. Examples include an older sibling, grandchild, acquaintance, or child over the age of 18 of the deceased IRA account owner. Proceed to Section 6 and review the Designated Beneficiary for distribution options.

We encourage you to consult your accountant or tax advisor regarding your IRA distributions. Even if you elect not to have federal income tax withheld, you are liable for payment of federal income tax on the taxable portion of your distribution.
